EDITORIAL

If you want something you never had, then do something you have never done. Don't go the way life leads you, take life the way you go, it is imperative if you want to live life and not merely exist. Remember you are born to live and not living because you are born. We in this institution try to prepare students to realise their natural potential to the full by imparting values, aptitudes and skills that bring out the best in them. Then it is left to them to make their life a success story.

A THOUGHT

Before the kingdom of animation.
Even before the dawn of civilization.

I took my birth.

In the early barren Earth

Sucking the nectar from mother's breast,

Getting the blissful light from the Sun,

I do grow up with a great mission

To beautify the Mother Earth.

With lush green natural beauty

And to give you flowers, fruits and life

Saving fresh air

And look you after with mother-care,

Though not ask for anything in return.

But you ungrateful human!

Your cruel hands cut my branches and head,

And make me uprooted for your

Narrow gain and daily-breads.

Never you feel my sorrow and pains.

Like Jesus Christ, I do silently bear

All my agony and morose,

Tears roll down from my eyes

When you cut my branches and head,

Yet never do I protest,

With motherly love, I only serve you best.

However, O' human I earnestly request

Cut me not, chop me not.

By your cruel choppers and axes.

Rather plant me, grow me up everywhere,

In return, I promise you my dear,

To give you flowers, fruits and fresh air

And fearless shelter to the fleet of birds,

Providing global ecological balance,

And swear to make your environment better.

Giving the Earth pollution free lovely nature,

Make her beautiful with greenery and fresh air.

To enliven the kingdom of animation forever

O' human, Plant me everywhere,

Chop me not, I'm your mother.

Dr. Amal Km. Datta.
